

README_incident_<date>_<incidentname>

Sticky

Overview

Main Artefacts

Actions

After-action notes

Log

2020-04-24 Start

2020-04-25 Look at URLs

Sticky

Overview

<What is this incident about - what are the risks here, e.g. potential real-world consequences>

<timeframes: are there time bounds on this incident, e.g. events it's gearing towards etc>

<geography/ demographics: any specific targets?>

Main Artefacts

<summary of main artefacts: could also say "look at MISP" here>

Text and hashtags

- <things you can search for>

Twitter accounts

- <accounts active in this>

Facebook groups and accounts

- <accounts and groups active in this>

Other social media

-

People

- <individuals and groups very active in this>

URLs

- <urls>

Images

- See images directory.

<image> Image "A"	<image> Image "B"	<image> Image "C"
----------------------	----------------------	----------------------

Actions

Suggested actions

- <list of suggested actions>

Actions

- <list of actions taken>

After-action notes

Useful for next time:

- <anything we learned from this deployment that we don't want to forget>

Log

2020-04-24 Start

[Name Redacted] pointed to [https://www.mmshealthy4life\[.\]com/](https://www.mmshealthy4life[.]com/)

- The substance they promote is MMS, Miracle Mineral Supplement (or sometimes Solution), or CD protocol or MMS drops, etc. It's. ... sodium chlorite with fruit juice acids ... which produces chlorine dioxide in the gut.
- An Australian couple promoted this in Seattle. The state sued, stopped them. But you can find tons of websites. mmsdrops DOT com, mms-supplement DOT com, etc. People promoting ... poison.
- Q anon nuts are selling these as covid cures

Plan: let's start with the websites. What are they, are they connected, is there a covid angle; is there disinformation being pushed? Then social media - is it amplifying the urls, the messages? Are there groups - who is behind them? Is this all about money, or power, or attention or is some of it genuine?

2020-04-25 Look at URLs

Look at www.mmshealthy4life.com/

- Following bigbook
- Look at site itself -
 - It's a sales site

- [Name Redacted] - person connected to site
- Twitter link <https://twitter.com/mmsproduct76>
- Email info@mmshealthy4life.com
- “Miracle Mineral Solution”
- Question: where is the lie? Where is the thing that’s part of an incident?

2020-05-25 reopen, to test MISP etc

Created MISP for this. Populating with existing data.